Along with the Student Council's regular duties of operating the candy machine, raising money for scholarships, and voting on school functions, it worked with the Board of Education and our sponsors, Miss Amos and Mr. Bartels, in setting up a student's dress code. The council sponsored a bake sale, several activity days, and selected programs for school assemblies. Delegates attended district and state conventions. Officers of this year's Student Council were Jim Olson, president; Curt Larson, vice-president; Judy Pearson, secretary; Linda Mussatto, treasurer.

ORGANIZATIONS

Future Teachers of America

F. T. A. : F.T.A. shows to the student the aspects of teaching and gives him the opportunity to see what it is like on the other side of the desk. In order to send representatives to the F.T.A. convention, members earned money through bake sales and coat checks. The officers this year are Chuck Gunier, president; Curt Larson, vice-president; Janet Cantlin, secretary; Judy Pearson, treasurer; George Yuhas, parliamentarian; Karen Knudson, historian.

Science Club

Medical Careers Club

M. C. C.: The Purpose of the Medical Careers Club is to promote interest in all phases of the medical professions. This aim has been accomplished by the sincere interest shown by the twenty-three members and our advisor, Mrs. Schlosser. The program committee, headed by Mary Hanley, planned regular meetings and special field trips. The members attended "Careers in Rehabilitation", a program held at Elmhurst College. At regular meetings, programs dealing with medical professions were given, such as movies and a talk given by representatives from Sandwich Community Hospital. The officers this year are Susie Wiley, president; Sherri Cooper, secretary-treasurer; Mary Henneke, historian.

SCIENCE CLUB: The Science Club, with Mr. Immekus and Mr. Mason as advisors, have enjoyed the year's activities. Among these were the trips to the Museum of Science and Industry. The Aquarium, and O'Hare Field. The Science Club brought us not only knowledge, but also pleasure when we had a Halloween party and a winter sledding party. This year's officers are Barb Johnson, president; Jim Pfau, vice-president; Gloria Huss, secretary; and Janet Cantlin, treasurer.

Future Homemakers of America

The FHA has a membership of forty girls with Mrs. Lett as advisor. The chapter is active in many money-making projects such as a spaghetti supper, the Sweetheart Ball, Christmas candle sales, and several dances. The members donated much time to projects which included buying pictures for the new additions, sending cookies and candy to the fighting men in Viet Nam, collecting money for the March of Dimes, and donating clothing to Appalachia during Bundle Days.

FHA sponsored many events during the year. Members participated in Freshmen FHA Installation, Be-Good-to-Teachers Day, Big-Sister Week, a skating party, a Christmas skit and Christmas caroling, Heart-Sis Week, and FHA week. The main event in FHA is the annual trip to Chicago which the girls work for by achieving points. This year, members toured the Sara Lee Bakery and attended a stage play. A style show was held May 23, with installation of new officers.

The officers for the year 1967-68 were as follows: Kay Walsh, president; Brenda Buttrum, secretary; Kathy Kennedy, treasurer; Sherri Cooper, public relations; Karen Jameson, points; Janet Cantlin and Debbie Miller, degrees; Karen Knudson and Jill Muffler, recreation; Kay Kennedy, historian.

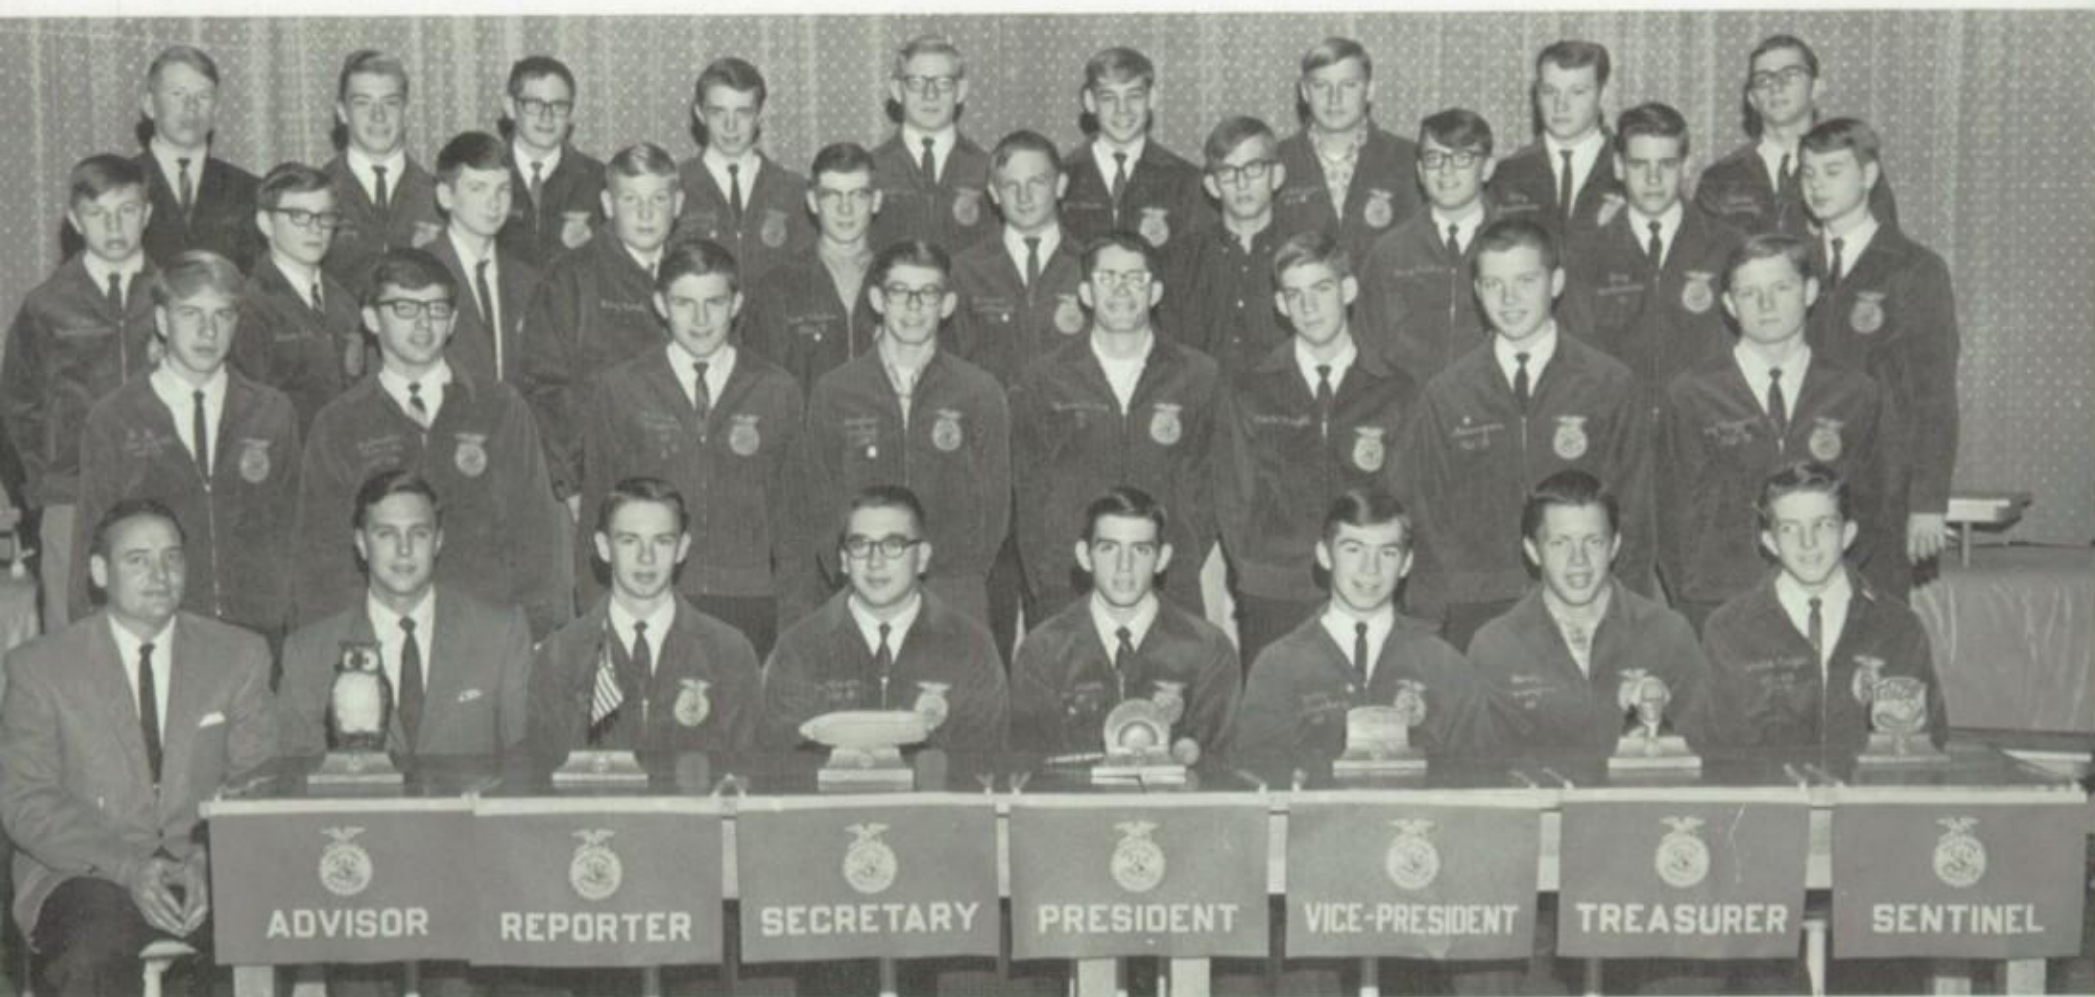

During regular FHA meetings, members planned many beneficial events, pertaining both to school and to outside activities.

The FHA officers planned and conducted meetings.

Future Farmers of America

SEATED: Mr. Tipton, Mr. Thompson, Bruce Hoxsey, Dan Mason, Jim Olson, Gerry Dannenburg, Randy Rosengren, Jerry Enger.

This year the FFA got off to a busy start. In September, the officers attended the Officers' Training School, held at Tonica. Also in September, the chapter held its 18th annual boar sale at the Sandwich Fair grounds.

In October, they attended the Section 7 Soil Judging Contest. The team consisting of Bruce Hoxsey, Jim Olson, Jim Rhodes, John Krug, and Randy Rosengren brought home a second-place ribbon. Jim Rhodes and Bruce Hoxsey received 9th- and 10th-place ribbons, respectively, for their individual efforts. On October 11th, Jim Olson, Bruce Hoxsey, Gerry Dannenberg, Randy Rosengren, Dan Mason, and Jerry Enger left Serena to attend the 13th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. While in Kansas City, the boys toured the Swift Packing Plant, the American Hereford Association Building, and attended the American Royal Livestock Show. The group was accompanied by the chapter advisor, Wesley Thompson.

November found the chapter at the Section 7 Parliamentary Procedure Contest at Sycamore. Members attending were Bruce Hoxsey, Jim Olson, Jerry Enger, Wayne Nelson, and Gary Baker. This was the first time the Serena Chapter has participated in this contest.

During December and January the FFA basketball team got into action. The team ended the season with 3 wins and 1 loss.

Parent-Son Banquet

In February the annual Parent-Son Banquet was held. The featured speaker for the evening was Dennis Lingley, the State FFA vice-president. On March 7, Jim Rhodes and Wayne Nelson attended the Section 7 Public Speaking Contest.

To complete the year's activities the chapter will hold its annual paper-drive in April. This is the chapter's main source of money, and it is usually very successful.

National Honor Society

FIRST ROW: Miss Leer, Advisor; Bruce Hoxsey, Vice-Pres.; Mary Hanley, Pres.; Judy Pearson, Treas.; Sue Wiley, Sec.; Mr. Bartels, Advisor.

This year the thirty-nine members of the Serena High School Chapter of the National Honor Society have employed their qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and service to make our high school a better one. They devoted much time working as hall monitors and student secretaries. Many served as assistants in the business office by running errands and delivering mail to teachers. Again this year, N.H.S. successfully handled ticket sales and door receipts at basketball games. Serena High School was proud to have seventeen new members accepted into its ranks at a candlelight ceremony on February 22. The new members vowed to uphold the principles of the National Honor Society. A banquet was held for all the members by the Board of Education in May.

The Core of Our Athletic Material!

Girl's Athletic Association

This year the Serena G.A.A. was sponsored by Mrs. Percifield, the physical education teacher. The girls elected these officers for the year: Kris Kestila, pres.; Jackie Peters, vice-pres.; and Glenna Mathesius sec.-treas. The group met every Tuesday after school to participate in games of volleyball, volley-tennis, soccer, indoor hockey, and other favorites. The girls attended Play Day in Ottawa High School, where they played games, had refreshments, and danced to records. A good time was had by all. They also sponsored a bake sale to raise money for their annual trip, taken at the end of the year. The members of this club are very enthusiastic about sports.

Pep Club

The Pep Club is probably the largest organization in the school. Members were required to attend three fourths of all home games and one half of away games in order to remain in active participation. Twenty-five members had perfect attendance, lending fine support to our teams.

On May 3, Pep Club held its annual carnival to raise money to send our cheerleaders to camp, whereby they will be able to lead us next year in better backing of the Huskers.

The Husker fans cheering at a rousing pep session.

Pep club officers: Geri Rockey, pres.; Linda Mussatto, v. pres.; Susie Wiley, sec.; Marty Pixley, treas.; Mrs. Percifield, Advisor.

Student Secretaries and Student Librarians

STUDENT SECRETARIES: High School teachers receive very valuable help from their secretaries, who type tests while learning secretarial skills and duties.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS: The student librarians have had a busy year learning procedures in our new location. They have proved to be efficient assistants in checking out books, taking care of library materials, and keeping the library in good order.

Yearbook Staff

STANDING: Cheryl Strubler, Linda Riveland, Marty Pixley, Chuck Gunier, Ron Jarrett, Phil Brown, and Randy Johnson. SEATED: Sherri Cooper, Nancy Krug, Geri Rockey, Sandy Hutn, and Judy Pearson.

Meet that deadline . . . finish that layout . . . hand in that copy . . . crop those pictures! These are some of the things that had to be done to make a yearbook. A year of hard work began after Mary, Susie, and Linda attended the Yearbook Workshop at Northern Illinois University in June, 1967, where they learned the fundamentals of making a "good" yearbook. These three girls became the core of the FLASHBACK Staff as co-editors. Under the supervision of our advisor, Mrs. Anfinsen, the staff worked frantically to make the 1968 FLASHBACK the best yearbook yet. And we made our deadlines, too!

Mrs. Anfinsen, Linda, Susie, Mary.

MUSIC

Chorus

The Serena High School Chorus, which is directed by Miss Cleon Amos, is one of our largest organizations. The chorus presented two programs, the Christmas Oratorio and the Spring Concert, and also participated in the graduation ceremonies. Miss Amos directed the entire mixed chorus and individual students for the Chorus Contests held at Marquette High School. The chorus received an excellent rating. Solos, duets, and ensembles did equally well. The chorus offers fun and challenge. Much enrichment is gained both by the surrounding community and the chorus students themselves through the efforts and performances of the chorus.

A superior rating was awarded to Rollin Varnes for his vocal solo.

The Madrigals, who received a superior rating, sang at the senior play.

Chorus Students Sing for Fun and Competition

Nick Anderson won an excellent award for his vocal solo.

The vocal judges awarded an excellent rating to Marilyn Jorstad.

Vicky Mason won an excellent for her vocal solo.

The Girl's and Boy's Ensembles are composed of the best singers in the music department. Positions are awarded after intensive auditions held during the first few weeks of school. The Ensembles provided entertainment at the plays and at many other activities throughout the year, including talent shows. Both Ensembles received superior ratings at contest this year.

Band

Mr. Brown Helps Nancy and Betsy Prepare for Contest

This year the band began its busy and exciting schedule by playing at home basketball games. As the Christmas season approached, the band prepared a variety of numbers for the annual Christmas Tea. This year the Class B Contest was held at Marquette High School with the band receiving an excellent rating. Also, the band participated in two annual spring events: the Little Ten Band Festival which was held at Serena, and the Class B solo and ensemble contest which was also held at Marquette High School. To complete spring activities, the band played in the annual Spring Concert, where first and second place winners of the solo and ensemble contest were presented their awards. As usual, the band marched at both the Memorial Day and Fourth of July parades at Sheridan.

The band, under the direction of William Brown, has worked to become an organization of which we can be extremely proud.

7 Wins—3 Losses

Ron catches a few to warm up.

Serena High School was again well represented by the baseball squad. The Huskers jumped into their schedule and gathered momentum as they defeated their first five opponents. The fine pitching of Jim Olson, backed by Jerry Allen, led the attack from the mound. The hitting of Jim Pfau, .375, paced a well-balanced team. The sweat and toil of the squad carried home an overall record of 7 wins and 3 losses to Serena this year.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders attended a day clinic held at Crete-Monee before basketball season last fall. There they learned several new chants, formations, and motions. Combining their ideas with those taught to them they formed new cheers. Penny Marshall (captain), Connie Johnson, Vicki Marshall, and Linda Sheldon (substitute) composed the cheerleading squad. With the cooperation and spirit of each one, they worked hard throughout the year to cheer for our J.V. basketball players.

A fourteen-ten record usually does not mean that team had a tremendous season; but this year Serena played very good ball with this record. Due to many factors such as injuries, ratings, and Newark, our record does not show our potential. In the Holiday Tourney we were handicapped by injuries to Paul Jansen and were beaten by first-ranked St. Bede. In the Little Ten Tourney we were handicapped with injuries to Paul Jansen, Chuck Gunier, Jim Pfau, and Jim Olson. We were defeated by Newark in both the Little Ten Tourney and the District Tourney. Leading scorer was Jim Olson and leading rebounder was Paul Jansen, a promising junior. Our play this year was capitalized with tough defensive play by all the boys. Looking forward to next year, we have high hopes in Paul Jansen, Jerry Enger, Ron Stecher, Jim Pfau, and Wayne Decker.

At camp the girls are taught by professional cheerleaders from through out the United States. The cheerleaders competed with 500 girls from several different states and received two ribbons: a first place and an honorable mention. Serena High is very proud of them!

Jim Blanding sets out from New York City to the "peaceful" mountains to build the house of his dreams, only to be plagued by the convincing country people, especially the cantankerous old Mrs. Eph Hackett. Between mounting bills, Mrs. Hackett tries to sue him. With much opposition from his family, Jim is about ready to give up; but thanks to the help of his daughter, Joan, his occupation and dreams were saved (of course!) and his dream house became a reality.

The Senior Class entertained the public with the Broadway classic "Arsenic and Old Lace". It takes place in the Victorian living room of the Brewster home. Abby and Martha Brewster, two sweet old ladies, make a habit of poisoning lonely old people; and Teddy, their nephew, who thinks he's President Roosevelt, buries them in the cellar. When their nephew Mortimer discovers one of their victims in the window seat, the plot thickens. Mortimer's problems are increased when his sinister brother returns home to hide from the law. The law finally finds Jonathan; and Teddy, Martha, and Abby happily make a new home at Happy Dale Sanitarium.

The Sophomore Attendants, Debbie Miller and Tim Hanley, were dressed in the traditional clothing, fitting in perfectly with the decorations of palm trees and tropical birds.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the king and queen, Sherri Cooper and Jim Olson. First Attendants were Kay Walsh and Keith Larson; Second Attendants, Anne Hitchins and Bruce Hoxsey.

Being a junior was a lot of fun, but also a lot of work. We had to raise money for the prom! This was accomplished through a positive class effort. The play, "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House," came first. Next came the comedy basketball game with the Harlem Satellites; candy and magazine sales were also contributing factors. Of course, schoolwork could not be neglected. Studying at odd moments had now been mastered. Being upper classmen brought with it much responsibility, and at graduation made us solemnly face the big task ahead . . . to take THEIR places . . . as SENIORS.

The sophomore class started the year by winning the magazine campaign again. They also held a pancake supper, a dance, a bake sale, and a sock hop as other money-making projects. Perhaps the most important highlight of this year was the choosing and ordering of their class rings. With the help of Miss Amos, Mrs. Schlosser, and Mr. Dittle, the year was a great success for the class of 1970.

Freshmen

The freshmen did not find it difficult to get acquainted at Serena High School. We started the year by attending a dance. The Freshmen Mixer, held in our honor by the Student Council. To start making money for our expensive junior year, we had charge of concessions at three basketball games, sold magazines, held several dances, and had two baked food sales. The class advisors, Mrs. Percifield, Mr. Bartels, and Mr. Gehrig, helped to guide us in these successful projects.

In Memory of
George H. Rockey

Oct. 7, 1951--Mar. 16, 1968

God hath not promised
 Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
 All our lives through;
God hath not promised
 Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
 Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
 Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
 Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
 Undying love . . .
